Useful Websites for Parents of SEN Children

Below is a list of useful website links which may be of interest to you if your child has, or is suspected as having, special educational needs.

British Dyslexia Association

The BDA is the voice of dyslexic people. Our vision is that of a dyslexia friendly society that enables dyslexic people to reach their potential.

I Can

I CAN is the charity that helps children with speech and language difficulties across the UK. The charity works to create a society where their special needs are recognised, understood and met, so that they have the same opportunities in life as other children.

Mencap

Mencap is the UK's leading learning disability charity working with people with a learning disability and their families and carers.

National Autistic Society

The NAS exists to champion the rights and interests of all people with autism and to ensure that they and their families receive quality services appropriate to their needs.

National Deaf Children's Society

The National Deaf Children's Society is the only UK charity solely dedicated to providing support, information and advice for deaf children and young people, their families and professionals working with them.

National Parent Partnership Services

National Parent Partnership Services offer information, advice and support for parents of children and young people with special educational needs (SEN). Your child's school or your Local Authority will have details of your local service.
